Abby Taylor is an attorney at Prudential Advocate who focuses on trust and estate litigation, with extensive California courtroom experience.

Abby Taylor earned her Bachelor of Arts from the University of Texas at Austin and her Juris Doctor from the University of San Diego School of Law. She has extensive courtroom experience, having conducted numerous jury trials and appeared before both the California Court of Appeal and the California Supreme Court, including several high-profile matters — one of which attracted international media attention.

She helped develop the practical implementation of newly enacted legislation addressing racial disparities within the Orange County court system, contributing to how the law continues to evolve across California. Abby served as a senior litigator with the Orange County Public Defender's Office before entering private practice in December 2025.

Abby is also a qualified solicitor of England and Wales and holds a current practicing certificate. She is an affiliate member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP) and a member of American Women Lawyers in London (AWLL).
